THE MASTER OF LAWS (LL.M.) PROGRAM IN CHINESE LAW

2018

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) Program in Chinese Law is a Graduate Law program offered by Peking University Law School, focusing on Chinese civil and commercial law. The language of instruction is English. The study duration of the program is 1-2 year.

Peking University is a pre-eminent university in China, well-known for her long history, rich culture, distinguished alumni, enlightened education policies and exciting campus life. Established in 1904, the law school has become a leading institution for legal education and a potent force for legal development in China. PKU Law School is ranked 20th globally at QS 2017 for law, 3rd in Asia.

The LL.M. Program in Chinese Law is to address the needs of the international community seeking a comprehensive understanding of Chinese law from a first-class legal institution. This program provides intensive instruction in Chinese law. Leading faculty members will offer Chinese law courses specifically designed for international students. The teaching will be comprised of both lectures and small-group seminars.

The program offers students opportunities to visit top law firms and some legal institutions in Beijing, with a hope to avail them with a better comprehension of the Chinese legal system and its cultural underpinnings. The program office also offers assistance to students in seeking internship opportunities at top law firms. Through the program, students can establish a solid foundation for their career development relating to China.

Merit-based scholarships are available (ranging from thousands of RMB to that covering tuition plus stipend): 1. Scholarship for Youth of Excellence Scheme of China (YES-China) 2. Chinese Government Scholarship 3. Beijing Government Scholarship 4. PKU Law International Student Scholarship

Applicants must have (1) a first degree in law (J.D., LL.B. or the equivalent) from a law school, or (2) a Bachelor's degree plus substantial law-related working experience. No more than 30 students will be admitted into this program in the year 2018.

The application deadline is Mar.31, 2018.
